Rahu in All 12 Houses: Ambition, Obsession, Foreign Ties and Sudden Rise

By Arpita Nath · Astrology Foundations · 2026-09-15

In Vedic Astrology (Jyotish), Rahu is the North Node of the Moon - the celestial serpent’s head. Without a physical body, Rahu operates through insatiable appetite, mental hunger, illusion (Maya), foreign influences, high technology and unconventional pathways.

Rahu represents the area of life where your soul seeks new, uncharted experiences in this lifetime. Wherever Rahu sits in your birth chart (Kundli), it amplifies desire, creates intense focus, breaks conventional boundaries and accelerates material ambition. However, because it is an eclipse-causing shadow planet (Chhaya Graha), its placement also produces blind spots, volatility and identity shifts.
